

The Vienna Actionism Museum WAM is looking for a committed and personality for the position of

Museum Supervisor (part-time basis)

The WAM currently houses the most extensive private collection of works by the artists Günter Brus, Otto Muehl, Herrmann Nitsch and Rudolf Schwarzkogler from the early 1960s and 1970s. The collection ranges from documentary material, sketches and graphics to the artists' most important visual works. This makes the WAM the most important and only contact point in Austria that permanently presents Vienna Actionism and its development.

A varied time awaits you in a new, internationally and unique museum.

Your tasks include:

- Supervision of our exhibitions and museum premises
- Security of visitors and objects
- Monitoring compliance with the museum's rules of behaviour
- Visitor service / cashier service
- Arranging guided tours of the works

Your requirements:

- Degree in art and cultural studies is an advantage
- Well-groomed, confident and friendly demeanour
- Ability to communicate in German and English (other foreign languages are an advantage)
- Experience in dealing with people
- Physical resilience (a lot of standing and walking)
- Affinity for art and culture

Our offer:

- A secure job in an established company
- Very good public transport connections
- A young, motivated team

We look forward to receiving your application.
